God's Love We Deliver Celebrates the 21st Annual Race to Deliver

BROOKLYN, NY, Nov. 24, 2014 -- On Sunday, November 23rd, God's Love We Deliver held its 21st Annual Race to Deliver in Central Park. The Park was bursting with over 5,300 runners, and 200 children joined in the Kids' Races. The festive pre-Thanksgiving mood lit the morning.

Celebrating its 21st year, the Race to Deliver is one of God's Love We Deliver's largest annual fundraisers. It is a 4 mile run/walk in Central Park, followed by multiple-distance Kids' Races. The Race to Deliver symbolizes the daily race to ensure that no one faces the dual crises of hunger and illness. The 21st Annual Race to Deliver was a huge success for God's Love We Deliver. It was a beautiful morning in Central Park as everyone raced for a wonderful cause.

This year, money raised at the Race will fund 40,000 meals and nutrition education and counseling for our clients living with severe illness. A $10 donation to www.racetodeliver.org funds one nutritious meal.

Many wonderful individuals and organizations supported this year's Race to Deliver. Noah Neiman, Celebrity Fitness Personality, Nike sponsored trainer, and Master Trainer For Barry's Boot Camp led invigorating warm-ups for the participants. Fox 5 anchor Ben Simmoneau welcomed Race participants and congratulated the winners at the awards ceremony. God's Love would also like to thank New York Road Runners and event sponsors M.A.C AIDS FUND, Global Brands Group, Fox 5, Gramercy Tavern and Simon & Schuster.

At the Kids' Races, runners ages 2 to 12, dashed in their own races, by age. At the end of each Race, the children involved in the Kids' Races received their own awards. God's Love Leadership Council members Katy and Greg Williamson and God's Love Board members Scott Bruckner and Sylvia Vogelmann cheered on and congratulated the runners of the Kids' Races.

God's Love We Deliver is continuing to raise necessary funds from the Race to Deliver. Donations can be made at www.racetodeliver.org and the Race to Deliver website will be available until December 21.
