The Beacon Theatre rocked last night when over 25 rock, soul and blues stars came together to play LOVE ROCKS NYC!, the first annual benefit concert for the NYC charity God's Love We Deliver, and raised $1.5 million dollars on behalf of the cherished New York-based not-for profit-organization, which is celebrating its 31st anniversary. Co-presented by designer John Varvatos and real estate executive Greg Williamson, the sold-out show featured Bill Murray as guest MC and included spectacular performances by legends such as Sam Moore, Joe Walsh, Jackson Browne, Mavis Staples, Michael McDonald, Warren Haynes and Aaron Neville, alongside young dynamos including Gary Clark Jr., Jackie Greene and Marcus King. The evening concluded with all the artists returning to the stage for a rousing group performance of "A Little Help From My Friends."
